Chester chooses two papers of record

BY SHARON HUNTLEY
The Vermont Journal

CHESTER, Vt. – During their March 2 meeting, the Chester Selectboard chose both the Vermont Journal and The Chester Telegraph to be their two papers of record for the distribution of their legal notices this coming year. The Chester Telegraph will continue to provide the online distribution, as they did last year, and the Vermont Journal will return, after a one-year hiatus, as the print option, replacing The Commons who printed the legal notices last year.

Publisher of the Vermont Journal Shawntae Webb spoke to the board, acknowledging the tensions between the Journal and the Town last year and describing them as, “[having] gotten off on the wrong foot” while she transitioned into the role of publisher just as long-serving publisher Bob Miller was retiring. At that time, the board had selected just the Chester Telegraph as the paper of record. As an online-only news source, the Telegraph did not satisfy the current Vermont law, which stipulates that legal notices must be printed. In the midst of his retirement, Miller led an aggressive effort to challenge their decision, upsetting board members, and resulting in the board choosing The Commons, a paper that largely covers Brattleboro news, as their print option, along with the Chester Telegraph.

Webb said she would like to “move forward and start a new chapter,” and emphasized that the Vermont Journal had continued to cover Chester’s Selectboard and school board meetings, along with Chester events and new businesses throughout the past year. Webb applauded the town for having notices both online as well as in print, saying that she shared that same goal of reaching as many townspeople as possible, and asked if the board would consider the Vermont Journal to be their printed paper this year.

When asked about circulation by board member Lee Gustafson, Webb stated that they send 2,000 papers to Chester’s mailboxes [and drop locations] and have 20,000-25,000 online viewers every month. She also noted that Chester residents made up the second highest readership of the Journal’s total online views in the state.

Board Chairman Arne Jonynas said that he appreciated Webb coming to speak to the board and for the news coverage of Chester over the past year.

Chester Telegraph Editor Cynthia Prairie also spoke to the board saying that the working relationship with the town has worked out well and that she’s been happy with the response from readers she’s gotten for carrying the town’s legal notices.

Gustafson noted that when he has tried to read online articles at the Telegraph, he has been frustrated with the pop-up notification that comes up alerting him that, he either hasn’t subscribed, or, has an ad block on. “It’s a little bit frustrating and concerning that I don’t have free access to your paper,” he said.

Prairie explained that the Chester Telegraph ads are hosted through a different company and that, if a viewer has an ad blocker on, they are not able to see the ads on the Telegraph. She said that the company they’re working with “has done some really tremendous work in trying to make sure that everybody who wants to see the Telegraph can see it.”

Chester Town Manager Julie Hance said that having notices in both print and online has worked well, that they have reached more people and that it did not impact the budget in a significant way and thus, was worth sticking to both print and online sources.

Jonynas agreed, but said that in this case he would go with the Vermont Journal since they cover Chester both in a larger circulation and through their articles. The board agreed and both papers were approved as the papers of record.

Hance thanked The Commons for stepping up in a “major way” last year, and although they were on the fringe of their cover area, helped save Chester from an issue.

Chester’s new board member Ben Whalen said that in the future, if the legislation does change to allowing online-only newspapers to be named as the official paper of record, they might consider continuing with the coverage in both papers anyway. He said that, especially if it works well, there was cause, since it was not a significant cost increase and resulted in more viewers seeing Chester town business. “I look at the Telegraph when I’m looking at things online and I’m certainly excited to see the Journal in the mailbox every week and certainly read it, so I hope we think about that in the future as well,” he said.

The next Chester Selectboard is scheduled for Wednesday, March 16 at 6 p.m. at the Chester Town Hall and via Zoom.

Amy Bohren hired as the new principal of CTES

BY SHARON HUNTLEY
The Vermont Journal

CAVENDISH, Vt. – Amy Bohren has been hired as the new principal for Cavendish Town Elementary School.

Moving to Vermont from Northern California, she brings 22 years of experience with her, the last seven years having been in educational administration. She has served as Director of Special Programs for a small district (small for California, that is) covering five elementary schools and two middle schools, and has subsequently overseen numerous state and federal budgets. She has also served as principal for a summer program, as a Director of Independent Study functioning as a liaison between general education and special education, supervised a hybrid educational model that led 29 teachers and included 850 families, mentored new administrators including principals in training, served as an associate principal, served as an instructional coach, and performed in many other roles including seventh and eighth grade literature teacher. Her complete resume can be found on the TRSU website.

“I am so honored to have been chosen as the next Cavendish Town Elementary School Principal. I love the expression that individually we are one drop but together we are an ocean. I can’t wait to work collaboratively with the talented teachers, students, staff, and overall community of Cavendish to do great things for our students! The future holds so many possibilities for our children, I can’t wait to see them all grow and thrive!” Bohren said.

Bohren was one of two candidates that participated in a hybrid forum on Tuesday, March 1 at CTES for school stakeholders including CTES parents, community members, Two Rivers Supervisory Union staff, teachers, and Green Mountain Unified School District Board members. The candidates answered questions for over an hour to both an in-person audience and separately to those tuning in via Zoom, covering topics ranging from experience, leadership style, budget management, social and emotional plans for students, vision for CTES, entry plan for learning about teachers and students, and conflict resolution. Participants were encouraged to provide their feedback on both candidates through an online survey, by five o’clock of the following day.

During the Zoom interview, Bohren shared several highlights of what will be a part of her vision for CTES. She outlined her plan for the school to become the community event hub led by student activities focused on joy and showcasing a richness of events and activities. She talked of fostering social and emotional wellbeing of students by incorporating bilateral movement to calm heart rate, as well as other trauma-informed practices. She spoke about including restorative justice practices to tackle discipline issues saying they were less punitive and more empathetic in nature. She also described her leadership style as both collaborative and servant based, where she would work closely with and include staff as part of the decision-making process; where no task was too big or too small; and that she would not be afraid to make top down decisions when necessary.

The following evening, Bohren, along with fellow

Representative Kimbell fields questions in Plymouth

BY SHAWNTAE WEBB
The Vermont Journal

PLYMOUTH, Vt. – During the informational meeting on Monday, Feb. 28, state legislature representative Charlie Kimbell answered questions from town voters regarding town and statewide updates.

Lister Michelle Pingree requested status on the cell phone tower that was put up about ten years ago and is still not in use. The Selectboard reported that there was no new information on it; it is private property and a private tower.

Kimbell continued the topic, “There is currently a proposal from the governor’s office to put $50 million into erecting 100 different cell towers across the state to improve communications.” He said, “The state is looking for proposals as to where those towers would be located... to increase that cell phone coverage, not only just for safety but also for communications to go on with our daily lives.”

Kimbell also discussed hot town and statewide topics that weren’t on the ballot for voting, such as the heat standard looking to ensure oil dealers that their products are burning cleaner, and the question of ‘how do you deal with it and how do you make this transition?’ He explained that the general consensus was, “we can make this work without it being a carbon tax, but be savings for the conservers.”

Selectman Keith Cappellini asked about how the legislature felt about rescinding mask mandates in schools. “It’s been a very local issue,” Kimbell replied. He said that they are “balancing what is scientifically recommended.” In the legislature, they continue to wear masks because they are working in close quarters to one another. From a personal perspective, Kimbell agrees with Cappellini that there is an emotional impact for children and adults, and “as soon as we can get away from wearing masks, we should be doing it.”

Town moderator Thomas Harris asked if there are grants for water quality projects, specifically for the Amherst dam and a clay cliff on Route 100 across from angry flats. “When it rains, it washes clay into the water,” he explained, muddying the waters of Amherst, Echo, and Rescue lakes. Kimbell explained there are funds available, but that it depends on the prioritization of the projects. “This is [a foreign] substance going into what ought to be pristine mountain streams,” Harris said.

Kimbell further explained

there should be funds available, whether it be from an economic or environmental impact, the money would come from a different pot.

Other residents discussed the danger of further deterioration of the Amherst dam, and its possible failure. Kimbell explained that it has private owners, who looked into their options for the dam when they learned it was their responsibility. State engineers have been watching the dam over the years and report that, in the event of a major storm, portions of the dam could fail and cause damage to homes downstream. The owners of the dam were required to either remove it, which would cost just under $400,000, or repair it at over $500,000 in expenses.

The Friends of Amherst Lake Association are “trying to keep the level of the dam the same or back up to what it was, but there is no financial assistance for that,” Kimbell explained. There is assistance to remove the dam however. Kimbell continued, if you want to raise levels back up, “you have to raise funds to do it.”

Alicia Armstrong has been organizing a nonprofit to help raise those funds, “to go towards purchasing the land from the current dam owners, and repairing the dam.”

LRC sets up potential West Hill renovation

LUDLOW, Vt. – The Ludlow Recreation Committee has spent the majority of the past few months reviewing the amenities in the Town of Ludlow's Recreation domain and some of the spaces that are ready for improvements. These areas include Dorsey Park, the Ludlow Community Center gymnasium, the Back 40/HS Ropes Course, and West Hill.

West Hill was for years the central swimming locale for families. It hosted the summer recreation camp program for many youths during their childhoods, and was where they played many games and activities before cooling off with a swim throughout the day. Even recently, the After School Program has excitedly returned to the West Hill grounds for their summer program the past few seasons. West Hill has also often been the home of the Ludlow Fourth of July fireworks extravaganza.

It is an amazing community resource, further complimented by its walking and hiking trails, a beautiful wooded waterfall vista, a sledding option in the winter, and so much more. As the LRC, we recognize the potential this space offers, and we are excited to announce the possibility for a phase one renovation maintenance project, which will be available to vote on this year on the Town Ballot. Tests for bacteria in the water and other possibly harmful components continually return low amounts, safely well below the average; ergo, should it pass, the Town will be able to dredge the bottom and re-sand the beach area. Further details will be available in the coming weeks.

The support of this project will keep momentum moving forward for future projects so that the other resources in need of improvement may also have the opportunity to be upgraded, such as, the basketball court in need of repaving and adding a pickle ball court, the Dorsey Park playground, further skate park renovations, and mountain biking on the Back 40. This upgrade to our community is long overdue. Our identity has always been interlocked with our beautiful natural surroundings and the recreational activities the outdoor resources provide. We look forward to your support, and are grateful for the Town's clarifications and communications during this process. Stay tuned, and please feel free to reach out to the Recreation Committee.

Rotary, United Church benefit dinner for Ukraine

LUDLOW, Vt. – The Ludlow Rotary Club and the United Church of Ludlow are combining efforts to raise humanitarian relief money for the besieged people of Ukraine on Saturday, March 19 at the United Church, located at the corner of Elm and Pleasant Streets.

According to George Thomson, they plan to serve a lasagna dinner. There will be a cost, or whatever generous donation the diner wishes to make, per person to join. "This is sort of an 'Eat so others can eat' affair to help the struggling people in the Ukraine," noted Thomson.

The lasagna will come in several sorts and varieties to satisfy the palates of those in attendance. This will include meat-filled, vegetarian, and gluten free lasagna options. Complementing the main course will be salads, breads, and desserts. Take-out meals may be picked up at the church between 5-5:30 p.m. while in-church dining will be available from 5:30-7 p.m.

Pre-orders for take-out meals can be made by calling 802-228-6275 or emailing Thomson131VT@gmail.com.

General donations are also appreciated. They may be made at the Ludlow Rotary Club's website, www.portal.clubrunner.ca/2939, or mailed to Ludlow Rotary, P.O. Box 216, Ludlow, VT 05149. Such donations are tax deductible.

Thomson added that, "We genuinely hope we can support the desperate needs of the folks in the Ukraine who are hungry and suffering the personal and family deprivations resulting from this terrible invasion. So let's eat so others can eat!"

ESBR hosts Jake Norton

LUDLOW, Vt. – The Expeditionary School at Black River is proud to host "100 Years of Everest," presented by Jake Norton. Okemo Mountain, Mary W. Davis Realtor & Associates, The Boot Pro, and Atomic Ski are proud to be partnering with ESBR for this event. On Thursday, March 31 at 7 p.m., join for a live Community Watch Party at the Roundhouse at Jackson Gore. For those who can't attend in person, there will also be a live stream link.

Jake's message and career embodies why Ludlow's independent school is anchored in the expeditionary learning framework. ESBR students have watched Jake's films, "Holy un-Holy River," and "Water Tower," in preparation for the March 31 live stream discussion. This has sparked healthy class discussions about overconsumption and pollution. The opportunity for local students to speak directly with the author of those films showcases the ways in which ESBR's leadership team is committed to expanding students' horizons.

The Boot Pro is having a raffle to benefit both the Expeditionary School and Ascunty Outdoors. The raffle closes on April 3, and there will be an opportunity to purchase raffle tickets at the March 31 fundraiser for ESBR Year Three. Come out for an evening of interesting conversation and support two local nonprofit organizations.

For more information, please contact Kendra Kickerby via email at kickerby@esblackriver.org or visit the school's website at www.es-blackriver.org.

GFWC Okemo Valley Women's Club updates

LUDLOW, Vt. – The GFWC Okemo Valley Women's Club met Monday, Feb. 7 via Zoom. A business meeting was held to review year-to-date projects and events. The club agreed to continue their support of the Black River Valley Senior Center in Ludlow this year, as well as their participation in the Okemo Valley Chamber of Commerce and various individual volunteerisms. Also discussed was the State Meeting, which will be held May 7, 2022 at the Ascunty Holiday Inn.

The speaker for February was the club's own Brigid Faenza, former N.Y.C. policewoman, and until her retirement this past year, owner of Big Eyes Bakery in Ludlow. Brigid showed the clubwomen how to make a Dutch Baby, which she described as a cross between a pancake and a waffle. It looked incredibly delicious and pretty easy to make. Not explaining the recipe and how to make it, she described the various ways to serve this as a breakfast food or even a dessert. Sweet or savory is up to the baker.

On Friday, Feb. 11, the club held their annual Bake and Hors D'Oeuvre Sale at the Shaw's Plaza in Ludlow. The sale was very well attended, and near Valentine's Day celebrations lots of homemade holiday treats were sold. The sale benefits the club's scholarship program, which is presented annually to a local high school student who plans to attend a two-year college. The club would like to thank the local community for their support of this event to benefit local students.

The next meeting will be held Monday, March 14. Anyone wishing to attend should contact President Penny Trick at 802-975-0313, Membership Chairwoman Roxie Davis at 802-226-7417, or any club member.

Devastating Chester fire –

Below is a 1904 newspaper clipping. Today this is the site of Chester Hardware. The Harris place is Dakin's.

Bellows Falls Times, Thursday, March 31, 1904

Chester Hardware block fire. Today this is Chester Hardware. Hit – Five Buildings Destroyed. Excellent Work of Fire Department

The night of March 26 will be long remembered. Not since the big hotel fire in 1887 when the three blocks were burned to the ground has there been such loss. At about 8:30 Saturday evening fire was discovered near the finishing room of Walker's furniture store. The fire was under such headway before being seen that nothing could stop it.

This building was a large one of some 40x70 feet, two stories. It was what is known as a balloon frame of small timber and it was consumed like a box of kindlings, making one of the hottest fires ever encountered. The second floor of this building front was the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Walker. Mrs. Walker was at the home of her sister in Ludlow, going there on the afternoon train. None of the household goods or clothing were rescued.

On this floor were the undertaking goods in a large quantity. The stock of furniture, stoves, carpets, etc., filled the rest of the building except the front, which was devoted to Mrs. Walker's millinery and fancy goods. Besides the stock usually kept on hand she had received that morning some $400 worth of new spring goods which had not been unpacked.

The fire, however, was so hot that but few trips could be made inside the building and the only things of value rescued were the typewriter and the drawers of papers from Mr. Walker's desk, while none of the millenary stock could be saved.

The horse, automobile and delivery sleigh were taken from the barn but everything else was burned. The only theory as to the cause of the fire was a defective chimney.

There was a strong wind at the time and the work of the firemen, which cannot receive enough praise, was of no avail in saving the buildings on either side. The residence of D.H. Cutler was the first to catch fire and very soon after this the Stearns block was in flames. From the Cutler house, which was also the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Austin, most of the household goods were rescued.

Mr. Stearns was able to save scarcely anything, the children were taken out in their night clothes and none of the other clothing was saved. In this building the second floor was used as a residence and the lower floor front contained a large assortment of 5 and 10 cent goods.

The rear of the building was devoted to the Stearns Manufacturing company, and the contents of the office were all destroyed, among these being a complete printers outfit, press etc., which was in constant use by Mr. Stearns in his advertising.

He had on hand a large stock of pulleys ready for shipment and these were all burned with several piles of lumber, in all many thousand feet. A building in the rear of the ell contained a large gasoline engine and other machinery. He also owned the large building on Grafton street known as the old tannery. This was also a victim of the fire.

Mr. Walker will rebuild at once and intends placing a smaller building on the old site and will build a separate residence, probably near the new house recently built by him. Mr. Stearns says he shall probably not rebuild. The Cutler house was one of the most desirable sites in town.

The water system received a hard trial but proved satisfactory in every way. Six streams from the hydrants were in constant play upon the fire, while the homes near were protected by the individual hose, and probably the safety of the Richardson house was due to this as they played upon the barn with their hose constantly. The large plate glass window in the front of the residence of F.H. Harris was broken and the paint blistered by the heat, while fire caught several times in different places but was at once put out.

The Baldwin place was also blistered and caught fire, while the residence of Mr. Ainley on Grafton street, the old parsonage, then new parsonage occupied by Rev. Henry Crocker, the Peabody house and the home of A.L. Ware were all on fire at different times...

This week's old saying was heard in Maine. It means taking time to organize: "I'm on a tidy."

Black River 100% Campaign for food, fuel security

REGION – Three local organizations – Black River Good Neighbors Services, Senior Solutions, and the Black River Valley Senior Center – have come together to strengthen each household in our communities during the month of March. This is to be accomplished through an intense, community-based, collaborative effort designed to reach each household in Cavendish, Ludlow, and Plymouth with clear, concise information through trusted communication channels as to the availability of resources, and to assist them in participating, applying, and obtaining these benefits.

The partnership has developed a logo to create local awareness for all activities in the campaign. During early March, every household will receive a letter briefly describing on-going programs providing help with food and fuel resources available in the towns. Included in the letter will be a 4x9 card listing the contact information of the organizations and services provided by each. This information will also be made available at town institutions, churches, stores, and libraries.

Thom Simmons, Outreach Specialist for Senior Solutions, noted that, "More than 60% of our local seniors who are eligible for food and fuel benefits do not participate in these programs. The Fuel Assistance program alone can provide up to $3,000 annually to help people with their fuel bills, and that's a lot of money to be 'leaving on the table' during a Vermont winter. We want people to understand that participation in these programs helps strengthen local communities and their economies. More than $9 million is added to the Vermont economy each month through the 3SquaresVT program alone, and that doesn't even include the multiplying effect of those dollars throughout the community."

The Senior Solutions team will be holding "open hours" to answer any questions residents may have related to the 3SquaresVT food benefits and Fuel Assistance programs at the following times and locations:

Alexander Whitney Connor, 1963-2022

LUDLOW, Vt. – Alexander Whitney Connor, 58, died at his home in Ludlow on Tuesday, March 1, 2022.

He was born July 21, 1963 in Springfield, the son of Arthur T. and Rebecca (Woodbury) Connor. He grew up in Perkinsville, attended school there, and then in Ludlow when the family moved in 1969. After high school, Alex worked for the woolen mills in Ludlow, then moved to Mack Molding in Cavendish where he has been employed since 1988. At the same time and between jobs, Alex worked part time for Whelen in Charlestown, N.H. and NHI in Claremont, N.H.

He married Linda Jean Baker April 11, 1989 in Ludlow and adopted her son, Allen Connor. Alex is survived by Linda and son

Allen, both of Ludlow, his mother Rebecca Tucker of Springfield, his brother Douglas Connor and wife Terry of Chester, and his sister Sarah Tucker and her partner Geoff Higgs of Arlington, Wash. Also surviving are his father-in-law Gordon Baker of Ludlow, and brother-in-law Michael Baker and JanMarie and family of Tennessee.

Alex's father Arthur Connor died in 2012, and his mother-in-law Shirley (Wright) Baker in 2018. No formal services are planned, but the family suggests donations be made to Turning Point, counseling services for substance abuse and addiction of all kinds, at 7 Morgan St., Springfield, VT 05156.

Davis Memorial Chapel is assisting the family with the arrangements.

Elinor M. Currie, 1932-2022

SPRINGFIELD, Vt. – On March 2, 2022, Elinor M. (Stewart) Currie, of Springfield, Vt., passed away at Cedar Hill Memory Care Center in Windsor, Vt. She was 89. She was born in Springfield on Nov. 20, 1932. She graduated from Springfield High School in the Class of 1950, where she was a cheerleader and had great school spirit. Shortly after graduation, she married the love of her life and husband of 68 years, Douglas Currie. Together they had six children.

Her life revolved around her deep devotion and abiding love for her family, her pets, and her Catholic faith. It seems only fitting that with her deep faith that she would pass away on Ash Wednesday. She was a member of the St. Mary's Church Council, the Alter Society, Regent of the Catholic Daughters, 5th Grade Catechism Teacher, a member of the Choir, and she sang as a soloist and played the organ for many funerals. She was also a long-time Eucharistic Minister who helped serve at Mass, at local convalescent homes and around the community to shut-ins and the sick and dying, all while tirelessly spreading her deep faith and spirituality to countless others. She was always happiest and most fulfilled when she was able to attend daily Mass.

She lived in Vermont her entire life and loved being a Vermonter, always enjoying the natural beauty of the Vermont countryside and the four seasons that went along with it.

In her younger years, she enjoyed skiing and golfing. Throughout her life, she enjoyed annual family vacations to Wells Beach, Maine, walking on the beach and antiquing on the way home. Antiquing was a particular passion that she shared with her husband. Together, they attended countless antique auctions and collected over 40 McKinney & Hall lithographs.

Elinor loved to travel and was fortunate enough to travel twice to Europe and even ventured into Asia, going with a church group on a pilgrimage to Ephesus, Turkey. This was one of the true highlights of her life.

Elinor M. Currie, 1932-2022. PHOTO PROVIDED

In the 1960s she and Doug bought and operated Brand's Pizza in North Springfield. She had many happy memories of North Springfield and the wonderful close-knit community there.

In the 1970s she went to college to become a Medical Technologist. She worked for many years in the Springfield Hospital Laboratory and then she ran the satellite laboratory at the Ellsworth Clinic in Chester, Vt.

One to help others whenever she was needed, Elinor will always be remembered for the question she asked the most. "What can I do to help?"

Elinor is predeceased by her husband Douglas, daughter, Linda Currie, and a son, Robert Currie. She is survived by her children: Michael Currie (married to Susan, Chester, Vt.), Howard Currie, (Springfield, Vt.), Cynthia Currie (married to Paulette Tipper, Swanton, Vt.) and Melissa Leenders (married to David, Lebanon, N.H.). She was the grandmother of three and great-grandmother of four. She is also predeceased by her sister, Deanna Shattuck.

There will be a Wake to celebrate Elinor's life on Thursday, March 10, from 4-6 p.m., at Davis Memorial Chapel, 99 Summer St., Springfield, VT 05156 and a Funeral Mass at 11 a.m. on Friday, March 11 at St. Mary's Catholic Church, 10 Pleasant St., Springfield, VT 05156. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Cedar Hill Memory Care Activities Fund, in memory of Elinor Currie, 492 Cedar Hill Dr., Windsor, VT 05089

Amy Jo Paquette, 1973-2022

WALPOLE, N.H. – Amy Jo (Armstrong) Paquette of Walpole, N.H. passed away on Tuesday, Feb. 22, 2022 in Tampa, Fla., surrounded by her family. She was 48 years old.

Amy was born on July 8, 1973 in Bellows Falls, Vt. to Elizabeth A. (Lockerby) Armstrong and William M. Armstrong. She grew up as one of nine children in Cambridgeport, Vt., and played for many years on the family softball team, the Cambridgeport Marauders.

Amy graduated Bellows Falls Union High School in 1991. Shortly thereafter, Amy met her soulmate, Michael Paquette, and they moved to Walpole, N.H. The loving couple were wed in August, 1994.

In 1999, Amy and Mike were blessed with their first child, their daughter Madison Marie Paquette. In 2002, they welcomed their son, Hunter William Paquette, and their family was complete. After Hunter's birth they purchased a home and moved to North Walpole, N.H.

Michael, Madison, Hunter, and their home, became Amy's life's work and her greatest masterpiece. Described by many as Walpole's Joanna Gaines, Amy loved to entertain and craft beautiful spaces in her home for her family and friends to enjoy. She had an eye for detail and infused everything she touched with thought and care. Amy loved working with children and dedicated many years working for various schools in the Walpole and North Walpole area. Amy enjoyed running, whether it be a half-marathon with her sister Sarah, 5Ks, or early morning runs with her good friend Nancy. She walked daily with her daughter around Walpole, admiring the gardens along the way, and stopping at Burdick's for an iced hot chocolate. She loved watching her son play ball, cheering him on proudly. Amy loved vacationing with her family and cherished their many summers spent on the Maine coast, and most recently, the Gulf Coast in the Tampa Bay area. Her sisters were her very best friends. Above all else, Amy loved God and her family. She had a smile that could light up the world and a light inside her that touched many people.

They say wherever you find God's people, Heaven and Earth overlap. Heaven shown brightest wherever Amy was. As a life-long devout Christian, her love for her family was matched only by her love for the Lord and for her church.

Amy was preceded in death by her parents and one brother, David Armstrong.

Amy was a kind, generous, and beautiful soul, and the weight of her loss is immeasurable. In addition to her devoted husband and children, Amy is survived by her sister Bette (Sissy) Morse and husband Ken of Westminster, Vt., brother Randy Armstrong and wife Kerri of Westmoreland, N.H., brother William (Ted) Armstrong and partner Joyce of Alstead, N.H., brother Jon Armstrong and wife Tammy of Rockingham, Vt., sister Shelby Barber and husband Albert of Bellows Falls, Vt., sister Jennifer Marquay of Walpole, N.H., sister Sarah Hayes and husband Ken of Bellows Falls, Vt., sister-in-law Tonya Armstrong of Sharon, Vt., brother-in-law Christopher Paquette and wife Stephanie of Tennessee, many nieces, nephews, and her large extended family.

A memorial service will be hosted on Saturday, March 12 at 1 p.m. at Grace Community Evangelical Free Church, 49 Old Swanzy Rd., Spofford, NH.

Sylvia Christa McCauley, 2022

BIDDEFORD, Maine – Sylvia Christa (Bullock) McCauley, 55, passed away on Feb. 22, 2022, from an infection caused by a difficult struggle with stage-four pancreatic cancer. She was diagnosed in July 2020 and for those grueling nineteen months, she stubbornly fought every obstacle that came her way while still enjoying trips to her favorite place (the beach) and spending time with family, proving that nothing could come between her and her love for the people around her.

Her children, Ashley and Joshua, were undeniably her most prized accomplishment in life. Her home in Maine became the hang-out for their friends, whether her own children were home or not; her goal was to provide a safe and fun haven for any child, and she undoubtedly accomplished and surpassed that goal, as many of Ashley and Josh's friends referred to her as Mama McCauley. She worked in special education in the Biddeford, Maine school system for many years before moving down to North Carolina to work at Heartworks, an after-school program, demonstrating patience and love to every child that passed through those doors.

Sylvia is survived by her beautiful daughter Ashley, loving son Joshua and wife Kassi, her domestic partner and soulmate Michael, her parents Frederick and Anni Bullock of Bellows Falls, Vt., sister Heidi and her husband Paul, brother Ralf and his wife Lori, sister Ella and her husband Lars, and nieces and nephews Nicholas, Stefanie and her husband Nick, Zachary, Samantha, Riley, Logan, and Brynn.

A Celebration of Life is planned to be held sometime this spring in Biddeford, Maine, as this was Sylvia's favorite time of year and where she had spent most of her adult life. The details of this celebration will be posted on the Facebook group page that was established in Sylvia's honor early on in her treatment. Sylvia made an impact on so many lives with her thoughtfulness and unwavering support. To quote her children, "She will forever be missed but never forgotten, every day she lives in our hearts as we continue to live by her example."

Frederick Joseph Waryas Sr., 1938-2022

BELLOWS FALLS, Vt. – It is with profound sadness we announce the passing of our father and everyone's Jaju, Frederick J. Waryas Sr. Surrounded by the love of his family, Jaju took his final breath on Feb. 24, 2022.

He was the first-born son of the late Antoinette and Edward Waryas on Feb. 2, 1938. He attended Bellows Falls' schools and was a 1956 graduate of the Bellows Falls High School. Handsome and outgoing, our Jaju was a shining Terrier athlete, excelling at both football and track.

After graduation, Jaju enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corp from 1956 until 1958. It was during this time, while stationed at Camp Lejeune in North Carolina, he met a lovely young southern woman, Peggy Sue Kendall. She was his "Rebel" and he was her "Polish Yankee!" They were wed on Sept. 2, 1961 and enjoyed 40 years of marriage until Peggy's death in 2002.

Over his lifetime, Jaju worked tirelessly to provide for his family. Most of his life he spent working at New England Power Company. He also worked at Granite State Electric until his retirement.

Ever the community volunteer, Jaju held positions as President of the Alumni Association and was one of the organizers of the very first Toolshed dance. He was also the President of the Vermont Heart Association, PTA President and Member of the Bellows Falls Union High School Board. He raised money for band uniforms for the Middle School, ran the "Chuck Wagon" concession, raised money for Pee Wee Football, and he and Peggy were both active members of the Booster Club. A devout Catholic and member of the Sacred Heart Parish, he organized a number of Polish dinners as well as Polish Polka dinner/dances to raise money for the church. As an active member of the Knights of Columbus, he served as the Grand Exalted Ruler. He was also a member of the Moose, Elks, Legion, and the Polish American Club.

Jaju was proud of his Polish heritage. Every Sunday on Gove Street, polka music would play before church. He and our mother loved to dance the polka, winning a few competitions along the way. Kielbasa, golumpki, kapusta, and pierogis were often featured on Christmas Eve menus. Annually, the post-Toolshed celebration on Gove Street meant pierogis made by "the master." He loved hosting "kids" of all ages and would nap so he could stay up when everyone stopped by late night. Memories were always made around the table when pierogis were in production. Though we've tried, no one can make them like Jaju. He did give a tutorial to family and friends this past summer though. A treasured memory.

Deer hunting was, and remains, an important tradition for Jaju and the Waryas family. Laughter echoes our homes whenever hunting camp tales are shared, and often re-shared, about the one that got away, or the big one scored! Jaju loved it all and was happiest when in the middle of the story telling.

Family was everything to Jaju. He found great joy in his grandchildren and all their accomplishments, attending many graduations and as many sporting events as he could. Dancing with his granddaughter Alli at her wedding was especially poignant. We all knew the most recent holiday season would likely be his last. Being together on Gove Street for both Thanksgiving and Christmas meant everything to him.

Jane Westfall and Jaju, "the J's" shared the last eight years together as partners in crime. Their love for one another was very special. We're so thankful for all Jane meant to our Jaju and will always consider her part of the Waryas family.

Jaju was predeceased by his parents, Edward and Antoinette Waryas; his infant brother, Frank and his loving wife, Peggy Sue. His brother, Ted (Peggy) Waryas, died just hours before him on the same day in Indiana. He leaves his partner, Jane Westfall and his four children and their families; Sueann Van Buren (Michael) and grandchildren, Dr. Allison Greene and husband Jason Weischedel, Katie Greene and Rose Van Buren; Timothy Waryas Sr. and grandchildren, Timothy Waryas Jr. and Holly Waryas; Paula Steele (Jeffrey) and grandchildren, Avery Steele and William Steele; and Frederick Waryas Jr. (Heather) and grandchildren, Griffin Waryas and Maya Waryas. He also leaves his brother Paul (Monique) Waryas. Jaju loved his Bellows Falls community. He will be missed by his many friends and extended family.

The Waryas family would like to thank the team at the Sterling House in Bellows Falls for the love and care given to our father. We would also like to thank the many doctors and nurses at Albany Medical, including his granddaughter Dr. Allison Greene, who cared for Jaju in his final days. He was treated with great respect and kindness, retaining his dignity to the end.

Calling hours will be held March 25 at Fenton and Hennessey Funeral Home in Bellows Falls from 5-7 p.m. A mass of Christian burial will be held March 26 at St. Charles Church at 11 a.m., burial following at Sacred Heart Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations can be made to the Frederick Waryas Sr. Memorial Scholarship Fund c/o Paula Steele, 23 Ira Allen Ct., Colchester, VT 05446 / Venmo @Paula-Steele-11.

Paul Barton, 2022

He leaves his beloved pets Micky and Jojo.

Paul immigrated to the United States in 1968. He always felt fortunate to spend the greater part of his life living and working in the state of Vermont.

Those wishing to memorialize Paul may donate to their local hospital or animal shelter.

Upon the families request there will be no services.

Davis Memorial Chapel is assisting the family with the arrangements.

William J. Neathawk, 1945-2022

NEWFANE, Vt. – William J. Neathawk, 77, of Newfane Hill Road, died Wednesday, March 2, 2022, unexpectedly at his home. He was born Jan. 5, 1945, in Brattleboro, Vt., the son of Charles and Juanita (Karlson) Neathawk. He grew up in Athens and was a 1963 graduate of Bellows Falls High School.

Billy, or Willy, known by both names to many, worked many years for Arol Ward Jr. Excavating in Grafton and even more years for Whitcomb Construction in Brattleboro and Walpole. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, NASCAR, and country music. And beer. He was an avid gardener and lived all winter on the fruits of his summer labor.

He is survived by his three children, Kevin W. of Grafton, Kimberly J. of Chester, and Shane J. of Rockingham, and his three grandchildren, Claire N. Shillington of South Hadley, Mass., Brandon W. of Charlestown, N.H., and Jared M. of Bellows Falls, Vt.. He was predeceased by his wife Shirley Lockerby Neathawk, and all three of his brothers, Charles, Edward, and Roger.

Raymond D. Rawling Jr., 1970-2022

ALSTEAD, N.H. – Raymond David Rawling Jr., age 51, passed away unexpectedly at his home Saturday, Feb. 19, 2022. Ray was born July 6, 1970, in Pittsfield, Mass. to Raymond Rawling Sr. and Jane (O'Connell) Selves.

Ray was raised in Westminster West, Vt. by his father Ray Sr. and his second mom Yvonne Rawling. He graduated from Bellows Falls Union High School in 1988, where he played varsity football and met his first wife Amy Bumford-Rawling. After high school, together, the two went on to have four children: Zachary, Andrew, Noah, and Mary-Elizabeth. Ray was a dedicated service man having held an 18-year military career in the Army and Vermont Army National Guard, becoming an E5 Sergeant. He also drove truck for many years for BDR Transport before starting his own company, Razmen Trucking, named for him and his children's initials. In 2015 he married his second wife Wendy (Underwood) Rawling, helping her raise her three sons Franklin, Daniel, and Benjamin Farnham in Alstead, N.H. Ray will be remembered as a fierce father, loyal friend, a dedicated racing fan, and with a smile like no other. He will remain famous for his annual end of summer bash, whom all were welcome at, known as "Rawlingfest," which consisted of a pig roast, mechanical bull, karaoke, and a spectacular firework show to the tunes of American Soldier, God Bless the U.S.A., and Courtesy of the Red, White, and Blue.

SEVCA's no cost tax prep

REGION – SEVCA is currently offering eligible community members an opportunity to receive free tax preparation services. The program, which offers no cost filing of both federal and Vermont state income taxes, is open to anyone who makes less than $57,000 per year. Drop off sites are located in Windsor, Westminster, and Brattleboro.

SEVCA's Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program utilizes IRS certified volunteers to ensure that community members gain access to valuable tax credits that the household and/or individual has earned like the Earned Income Tax Credit and Child Tax Credit. Additionally, highly trained program volunteers work with each individual and household to ensure all items are properly filed and to double check that a benefit has been received. Preparers will pay extra attention to items that are new this year like Stimulus Impact Payments, Advance Child Tax Credit Payments, Homestead Exemption benefits, and Renter Rebates, so that program participants receive all refunds for which they are eligible. SEVCA's committed VITA volunteers are patient, willing to explain the tax process clearly, and are committed to providing quality tax services free of charge.

Tax returns may be filed electronically and program participants may opt for a direct deposit of their earned refund. And, new this year, community members with access to a computer or a smart phone can use a customer portal to enable them to work remotely with a volunteer to file their taxes. Program participants and all eligible community members may also choose to enroll in SEVCA's VT Matched Savings program or our financial literacy classes.

Come home to Grace Cottage

TOWNSHEND, Vt. – Cozy and cheerful, with bright and sunny rooms, flowers blooming on the windowsills, and a happy, attentive staff – does this sound like a good description for your next vacation getaway? Then you might be surprised to learn that these descriptions were part of a recent patient testimonial for Grace Cottage Family Health & Hospital, on Grafton Road in Townshend, Vt.

Grace Cottage is indeed proof of the saying, “Good things come in small packages.”

People are often surprised by how many healthcare services they have access to at our facility, despite it being Vermont’s smallest hospital.

Located on a five-building campus just down the road from the busy intersection of VT Routes 30 & 35, Grace Cottage offers everything from primary care, geriatrics, pediatrics, and mental health appointments, to outpatient physical and occupational rehabilitation, to hospital inpatient care, and emergency care any time of day or night, every day of the year. This means you can come to us for your day-to-day healthcare needs – annual physicals, diagnosis and treatment of illnesses and chronic conditions, vaccinations, mental health care, pediatric and geriatric screenings, and more, and have access to lab tests, CT scans, and x-rays just a few steps away. And there’s more. Grace Cottage also helps with short-term inpatient care and longer-term “swing bed” care for rehabilitation. There’s a hospice suite for those who need it. And an expertly trained staff with the latest diagnostic equipment is always ready to care for you in an emergency.

Many of our patients say that being at Grace Cottage is like coming home. They’re referring to that cozy, friendly atmosphere mentioned before. But truly, this label is also appropriate because we are a federally certified “Patient-Centered Medical Home.”

Why is this important? First, it’s important because the patient comes first. You get to decide what kind of care is right for you. And second, that fancy, complicated-sounding phrase means that our providers talk to each other. Your care is well coordinated by providers who follow up and follow through. That means that you, the patient, aren’t forgotten in the bureaucracy that sometimes surrounds healthcare. You are at the center of it all.

One recent patient from Chester, Vt., wrote to thank Grace Cottage, saying, “I enjoyed my stay at your ‘home.’” How often do you hear that about a hospital? If you need a new place for your healthcare, come home to Grace Cottage!

GFC receives $250,000 to help prevent youth substance use

BELLOWS FALLS, Vt. – Greater Falls Connections in Bellows Falls, Vt. has received a Community-Based Coalition Enhancement Grant to Address Local Drug Crisis of $250,000 from the White House Office of National Drug Control Policy. The CARA program enhances the efforts of current or former Drug-Free Communities program recipients to prevent opioid, methamphetamine, and prescription drug use among youth ages 12-18 across the United States. GFC is using the funding to involve and engage the local community to reduce the impacts of Adverse Childhood Experiences, a major factor in developing substance use disorder.

The CARA grant program is a partnership between ONDCP and the National Center for Injury Prevention and Control at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. It aims to reduce youth substance use by providing funding to local coalitions to help them apply evidence-based prevention strategies to the emerging challenges in their communities.

“We know that delaying substance use until after adolescence decreases the likelihood of a person developing a substance use disorder,” said ONDCP Acting Director Regina Labelle. “It is also important that we consider social determinants of health such as poverty, homelessness, and other conditions as we build effective prevention strategies. This funding will help support the Biden-Harris Administration’s mission to expand evidence-based prevention, treatment, and harm reduction services by providing our local partners in Bellows Falls, Vt. with the resources they need to reduce youth substance use.”

“This new funding will be essential in responding to the needs of youth and families who are most impacted by trauma and substance use in our community,” said Laura Schairbaum, Greater Falls Connections Director.

With this funding, GFC will support training and technical assistance for employers, health care providers, schools, and mentors to increase social connections. This work will also support trauma-informed services and spaces that are accessible to families impacted by generational trauma and substance use. GFC’s youth group, Above the Influence, co-facilitated with Friends for Change, will learn and apply Restorative Practices to create community healing, resiliency, and increase peer supports.

Keeping Youth Safe Around Cannabis

Did your town, or one nearby, opt-in for retail cannabis? It takes a community to support youth to make healthy choices as their brains are developing. That’s why the legal age is 21.

Together we can take steps to reduce risk of harm by talking with young people often about cannabis. It’s not easy, but you can do it. Just A.S.K. = Advise, Support, Know. Learn tips at: ParentUpVT.org Caring adults who choose to use should safely use, store, and dispose of their cannabis. Ingestion of high THC cannabis products can be harmful to youth. Outbreath focus boosts your health

JAMAICA, Vt. – Personal health and well-being are on everyone’s mind these days. Covid has raised our health concerns as well as our levels of anxiety, fear, pain, and stress. So while our communities are attempting to resolve this major health crisis with masking and vaccinations, we are still suffering personally – emotionally, physically, mentally, spiritually, and financially. Many of us are maxed out on credit and often can’t afford the copay to visit a doctor or the emergency room when a crisis arises.

But there is hope because you have, in your body, the resource to manage anxiety, fear, pain, and stress. It’s your very own breath. Any time you simply focus on your breath, your body benefits. But when you learn to actively breathe out – just the opposite of regular breathing – you are able to manage anxiety, fear, pain, and stress without medication. Simply stated, your active outbreath helps you access the relaxation part of your autonomic nervous system. You save energy, reduce the work of breathing, and support all organ systems in their important work.

Respiratory therapist Betsy Thomason, a resident of Jamaica, Vt., introduces you to the BreatheOutDynamic system, the life-altering outbreath method, in her book “Just Breathe Out – Using Your Breath to Create a New, Healthier You.” Betsy guides you through the BODs learning process and explains the physiology of its effectiveness and its application in everyday life. You learn about real people who manage their energy and overcome obstacles using their active, spine-stretching outbreath.

Learn more about Betsy’s work at www.outbreathinstitute.com. “Just Breathe Out” is available on audiobook and on kindle, or as a paper copy at your local Vermont bookstore. Betsy offers a free phone consultation and can be reached at her website or by calling 551-265-7561.

Girls on the Run Vermont seeks volunteer coaches

REGION – Girls on the Run is a physical activity-based, positive youth development program that inspires students in third through eighth grade to be joyful, healthy, and confident. The eight-week program incorporates movement to empower participants to develop critical life skills, build confidence, cultivate positive connections with peers, manage their emotions, and stand up for themselves and others. Volunteer coaches utilize a curriculum to engage teams of girls in fun, interactive lessons. The spring season begins the week of March 28. Teams meet twice a week for 90 minutes and the program culminates with all teams participating in Girls on the Run Vermont’s 5k event.

Coaches do not need to be runners. Girls on the Run Vermont provides training so volunteers do not need prior coaching experience. All volunteer coaches must complete a background check. GOTRVT welcomes high school students to volunteer as Junior Coaches. Please visit www.gotrvt.org

Springfield Hospital receives artistic thank you

SPRINGFIELD, Vt. – A welcome surprise was delivered to the Springfield Hospital staff from the children of the Saxtons River Elementary School. With the assistance of their teachers, a colorful banner and fourteen posters were created by the children to thank the staff for their work at keeping us all safe.

“The banner and posters refill our hearts and renew our purpose. Thank you,” says Vicky Collingwood, Assistant Manager and Unit Based Educator of the Inpatient Care Unit. She added, “Some of the posters were given to the patients, encouraging them to get well.

We are proud of the work we do here at Springfield Hospital and truly appreciate the thoughtfulness of this kind and very special gesture by the children.”

Nonviolent Communication Workshop

ROCKINGHAM, Vt. – Would you like to maintain connection and have compassion for yourself and others during difficult experiences and conversations? Do you long for understanding and peace within yourself and in your relationships with others? Are you troubled by the lack of meaningful communication and connection you witness and experience in the world around you?

On Wednesday, March 23 at 6:30 p.m., Laurie Rabut offers an Introduction to Nonviolent Communication over Rockingham Library Zoom. Nonviolent Communication, also known as Compassionate Communication, is not only a set of learned skills, but also a “mind-set” and a “heart-set” that prepares us to meet ourselves and others in a way that offers empathy and optimizes connection. This workshop offers both modeling of nonviolent communication and the opportunity to practice with others.

Laurie has studied NVC with the founder, Marshall

Rosenberg, and trainers Robert Gonzales, Peggy Smith, and others. As a lifelong educator and NVC practitioner for over two decades, she has brought her expertise with NVC to the Restorative Circle Conference facilitation trainings she offers with her colleagues at Restorative Community Practice of Vermont.

To receive an invitation to join this live zoom presentation, contact programming@rockinghamlibrary.org or call the library at 802-463-4270.

Dear Editor,

The Gill Odd Fellows Home needs your help! It is time for us to ask the Town and Village of Ludlow to grant us a Property Tax Abatement again. The Gill Home is located in both the Village and the Town, so we would have property taxes for both, two separate votes. This year's voting for us will be different. We are being voted as an Article at the meetings, not on the ballots. In order to vote you need to attend the meetings.

The vote for our Town portion of our taxes will be at Town Meeting on Monday, April 4, with the vote coming from the floor. In order to vote, you will need to attend the meeting at 7 p.m.

The vote for the Village portion of our taxes will be Tuesday, March 22 at 7 p.m., with the vote coming from the floor. In order to vote, you will need to attend the meeting at 7 p.m.

The Gill Home is a home for the elderly and a Skilled Nursing Facility for Rehabilitation Therapy for adults who have had surgery or a stroke, or an accident resulting in a broken bone. We have served the Ludlow community since 1896, just celebrating our 125th Year. We are a nonprofit, 501c3 organization. We are also one of the largest employers in Ludlow, with approximately 70 employees.

Only Ludlow Town and Village registered voters can vote. Others who are not Ludlow voters but who want to help can encourage Ludlow voters to vote "yes" for us. Maybe your son or daughter, or other relatives or friends, live in Ludlow and you could encourage them to vote "yes."

You can help us by voting "yes" at Town Meeting; and again voting "yes" at the Village Meeting. Thank you so much for any help you can give us. We appreciate it very much!

Dear Editor,

I am writing to say thank you to all who supported me to get elected as a Springfield School Director. Thank you to those who volunteered their time to help me campaign, some of whom stood out with me in the cold on election day! I enjoyed meeting many people as I was out campaigning. We live in a terrific community.

Congratulations to Denise Hunter who will join me as a new school board member. I am looking forward to working with her and the entire school board as we navigate out of this pandemic and bring on a new superintendent.

I will continue to work hard. Thank you again!
